- At the time of purchase, you are responsible for checking that the event, date, time, place and price are correct. Prior to the event, you are also responsible for checking if the event date, time or place has been changed.
- If an event is cancelled, Ticnet is not liable to offer you a refund, but will provide you with the contact details for the event organiser. Ticnet may, however, refund customers directly if special authority is provided by the organiser. In these circumstances, the refund must take place within a limited time, and no later than one month after the event was due to take place. Under no circumstances will any service charge and postage fee be repaid.
- The ticket is not valid for re-admission.
- The ticket is a valuable document. Lost tickets will not be replaced.
- Warning! Forged tickets may exist. Always purchase the ticket directly from an authorised seller.
- The organiser notifies you of the following: the sound level at certain concerts can be high and lead to discomfort. The concert guest is solely responsible for taking preventative measures. Intoxicated persons will be denied admission to the event. It is prohibited to take into the venue any objects, including bottles and cans, that may cause injury to another person. Camera, sound and film equipment may not be taken into the venue. The ticket holder may be subject to a search prior to their admission to the venue.
- VAT registration number: 556401-2887. Ticnet AB holds a certificate for F-tax (business certificate).

- The barcode only allows one entry per scan.
- Unauthorised duplication or sale of this ticket may prevent your admittance to the event.
